Getting Jesus Right
Lenten Series: Easter Road

Central Question: Are we willing to let Jesus be who he is, rather than who we would like him to be?

Responses to Jesus

❖ The Religious Authorities – The Threatened

Mark 14:1–2 (NIV) — 1 Now the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread were only two days away, and the chief priests and the teachers of the law were scheming to arrest Jesus secretly and kill him. 2 “But not during the festival,” they said, “or the people may riot.”

❖ Simon the Leper – The Grateful

Mark 14:3 (NIV) — 3 While he was in Bethany, reclining at the table in the home of Simon the Leper,...

❖ The Disciples – The Confused

Mark 14:4–5 (NIV) — 4 Some of those present were saying indignantly to one another, “Why this waste of perfume? 5 It could have been sold for more than a year’s wages and the money given to the poor.” And they rebuked her harshly.

❖ Judas Iscariot – The Disillusioned

Mark 14:10–11 (NIV) — 10 Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus to them. 11 They were delighted to hear this and promised to give him money. So he watched for an opportunity to hand him over.

❖ The Woman – The Worshipers

Mark 14:3 (NIV) — 3 While he was in Bethany, reclining at the table in the home of Simon the Leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, made of pure nard. She broke the jar and poured the perfume on his head.

Mark 14:6–9 (NIV) — 6 “Leave her alone,” said Jesus. “Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing to me. 7 The poor you will always have with you, and you can help them any time you want. But you will not always have me. 8 She did what she could. She poured perfume on my body beforehand to prepare for my burial. 9 Truly I tell you, wherever the gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her.”

Homework:

- ❖ What is your perspective of Jesus? If you haven't yet, begin to read the gospels – Matthew, Mark, Luke and John – prayerfully asking Jesus to make himself known to you.
- ❖ If you're confused or disillusioned with God, find someone to talk to. Pastor Scott is available by calling the church office or by email at scott@ccclamesa.com.
